Writing

~~At my birthday~~
I would like to tell you about my best day in my life. It was 2010. My parents bought me a computer. I thought I could play good games on it, but this is not true. But I found games I could play on my computer. Later my mother went home and gave me a cat. I gave a cat name Max. In the evening my friend sent me a friend request in a game store and we played computer games until 22 hours and then I went to bed.
That was my best day. (87 words)
